UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, Plaintiff,) Case No.: 2:13-mj-652-VCF) ORDER TO CONTINUE PRELIMINARY) HEARING VS.)
JOHN DOE, a.k.a. Arnold Malone,)) Defendant.))

FINDINGS OF FACT

Based on the pleadings and arguments of counsel, and good cause appearing therefore, the Court finds that:

- 1. The United States provided early discovery, and the continuance is needed to allow the defendant time to review the evidence in anticipation of a pre-indictment resolution of the case.
- 2. The additional time is needed to allow the parties to conduct further investigation in anticipation of a pre-indictment resolution of the case.
 - 3. The defendant is incarcerated, and does not object to the continuance.
- 4. The additional time requested herein is not sought for purposes of delay, but merely to allow counsel for the government and the defendant sufficient time to attempt to resolve this matter.
- 5. Denial of this request for continuance would deny counsel for the defendant sufficient time to effectively and thoroughly complete negotiations, taking into account the exercise of due diligence.

- Additionally, denial of this request for continuance could result in a miscarriage of
- The additional time requested by the parties' Stipulation is excludable in computing the time within which the trial herein must commence pursuant to the Speedy Trial Act, Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(7)(A), considering the factors under Title 18, United States Code, Section 3161(h)(7)(B)(i) and 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).
 - This is the second request for a continuance of the preliminary hearing.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The ends of justice served by granting said continuance outweigh the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial, since the failure to grant said continuance would likely result in a miscarriage of justice, and would deny the parties herein sufficient time within which to complete plea negotiations and inspect the discovery, taking into account the exercise of due

The continuance sought herein is excludable under the Speedy Trial Act, 18 United States § 3161(h)(7)(A), when considering the factors under 18 United States Code
